To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of Doros Hadjisavva , owner, The Acropolis Restaurant. I am the Payroll & Administration Specialist at Warrick Operations and have had the opportunity to develop a terrific working relationship with Doros over the years. I am responsible for coordinating the catering needs for our training sessions each month as well as special events. I would like to share some of my experiences with Doros.

For our smaller groups of fifteen to twenty, Doros prepares boxed lunches to suit the taste of attendees. Doros is very accommodating to special requests and often suggests ways to modify the menu to keep it fresh for my employees. I have always been pleased with the choices he makes for me and feel confident in his decisions when I leave it up to him. Even if I have a last minute change he is able to accommodate and meet me with a smile. I co-chair the LIFE Committee here at Warrick Operations which is focused on employee engagement. In December we hosted a Holiday Dinner/Dance at The Old Post Office Events Plaza. I was the SPA for the event and my first choice was Doros and his new facility. I was able to give Doros my budget and my requests and he took care of the rest. He arranged entertainment, centerpieces, bar service and the full menu based on the number of participants. Doros and his staff were very professional and I was able to greet guests and mingle throughout the evening instead of worrying about the details. I must say that it was a very pleasurable experience for such a large event. I look forward to another successful holiday party in 2012.

In conclusion, it has been a pleasure to work with Doros and I will continue to use his catering service for future events large and small. I am confident in his ability to provide quality service for groups ranging from twenty to two-hundred. I highly recommend Doros and his staff to anyone looking for quality and dependability at their event.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

I simply want to add my recommendation of the Acropolis.

I recently chaired the Holiday Party for the noon Rotary Club of Evansville. We had about 170 people in attendance. Doros and his staff at The Acropolis were wonderful to work with.

Their attention to detail and pride in their workmanship is outstanding.

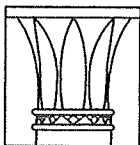

I plan many events in my professional life and understand the importance of having a reliable vendor that provides what they promise.

Please feel free to call me if you need to discuss further.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It is my distinct privilege to write an enthusiastic endorsement of the outstanding catering services offered by my friends Doros and Ellada Hadjisavva at the Acropolis Restaurant.

Having served as Director of the Evansville Museum for 37 years, I have had the opportunity to work with a wide variety of regional caterers; and I can say without qualification that the Acropolis is as good as they come. Whether planning a small luncheon meeting or a large reception or dinner, the Acropolis Staff gives the same consistently meticulous attention to detail, both in artful presentation and quality of food.

Although principally known as a Greek restaurant, they can create with ease and culinary imagination, menus from many other cultures, each satisfying the most discerning palate.

A notable point is that they are exceptionally accommodating to their clients. Quite simply, they LISTEN, making certain that expectations are clearly understood and thoroughly met.

Working with the Acropolis Staff is—from start to finish—a delightful journey--one that will not soon be forgotten.

To Whom It May Concern:

Graham Packaging has been working with the Acropolis for catering needs since 2010. We have utilized their service for every event from restaurant meetings to large in house groups across four different shifts. They have consistently handled catering for 20 to 300 with the same quality and service. Not only do our employees enjoy the variety of food, but the personal service from Doros Hadjisavva and his team makes planning the event a breeze for our staff.

After 10 years of working with caterers in the Evansville area, we just could not be more pleased with our switch to Acropolis Catering and would confidently recommend them to anyone. If you have questions or need more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I write this letter to recommend Doros Hadjisavva and the Acropolis Restaurant. Over the past seven years, I have had the privilege to work with Doros and his staff for many different events. He has served our needs from small committee meetings to very large events.

The event that stands out in my mind is our 2011 March of Dimes Signature Chefs Auction. Held in November each year, this event has as many as 600+ attendees. Eighteen local chefs and restaurants are present serving samples of their menus to our attendees. Last year we moved and reinvented the entire event to a new venue. Needless to say, our committee consisting of 26 veteran members was nervous with all the "unknowns" involved with our event changes.

For the event Doros and his staff served as our Food and Beverage Coordinators. This included coordinating all our chefs and volunteers. They were also responsible for all our alcoholic beverage service. We have two full bars set up at this event as well as a winery that participated. Doros was responsible for the set-up, load-in, clean-up and coordination our culinary volunteers. We met with Doros and his staff weeks prior to the event. I was impressed with his ability to see our "vision" and then suggest ideas that not only enhanced the event but equally important were the cost savings we incurred following their advice. Doros' attention to detail was directly responsible for this event being one of the most successful we've held. We will use Doros and his staff again at our 2012 March of Dimes Signature Chefs Auction.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions regarding my recommendation. I have more than 22 years in the meeting planning business and strongly feel that Doros and The Acropolis Staff will make your event the success you envision.

Respectfully,

Leading Businesses. Leading Communities.

Dear Becky Kasha and Planning Committee:

With the importance of presenting an event in the best possible light in mind, I would like recommend Doros and Ellada Hadjisavva (The Acropolis) as caterers for the upcoming United Leasing Championship at Victoria National. While I was employed at Ivy Tech as the Marketing Coordinator, we used The Acropolis for several heavily attended events (300+ people).

No matter what our needs, The Acropolis handled our events with professionalism and more importantly, with delicious food! At several of our events, The Acropolis handled breakfast, lunch, beverage service and all snacks. Doros and Ellada always recommended foods to pair that would serve well, be attractive and please the palette. Doros would set up a tasting session at the restaurant and we would select our menu after seeing the presentation and tasting the food. Again, the service was impeccable, and the menu suggestions were spot on.

We never ran out of food at any event, and people with dietary restrictions were accommodated without question. People from around the state would always want to know if we were serving food from The Acropolis!

The Acropolis offers a wide variety of menu selections that range from American, Greek, Mexican, to Italian, etc. Set-ups of our events were always handled smoothly, the servers were always courteous and helpful, and the food was delivered and presented as promised – no surprises. As an event planner, there are plenty of details to worry about - I never worried about the catering when The Acropolis was providing the food service.

If you want to be confident that the service you require and expect will be delivered, please consider The Acropolis when making this important decision!

All best,

To whom it may concern:

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Acropolis Restaurant as a premier catering provider in the Evansville/Tri-State market. I have had the pleasure of working with Acropolis on several occasions and I have found their staff to be extremely professional and thorough. They ensured that every detail was addressed in the planning process and they made my job very easy.

The quality and quantity of the food provided was exceptional and at an affordable price for my fundraising needs. The most recent event that Acropolis catered for me brought about multiple compliments from some of our oldest and most opinionated supporters who indicated that it was the best meal they had ever had at a fundraising event. In addition to the delicious food provided by Acropolis, I found their service to be exemplary with meals served in record time for our large crowd.

I naturally prefer to do business with excellent service providers. However, I also find it reassuring to work with ethical and community-minded individuals who give back to the community. This is yet another reason why I would recommend Acropolis Restaurant. Doros and Ellada Hadjisavva are not only savvy business owners who introduced Evansville to the wonders of Greek cuisine; they are generous community leaders who share their time, treasure and talents to help others. You can regularly find them volunteering for a local charity, serving on community boards and committees, or donating food to help a worthy cause.

I am confident that Acropolis can meet and exceed your catering needs. I would be happy to provide any additional information about Acropolis Restaurant if needed.
